At this point in the old book this register of baptisms is arrested, the remainder of it, from September 11, 1763, being thrown forward to the very last of the volume. The very many leaves that intervene are taken up with three things:

1.--A perfectly useless resume of the baptisms as given above from our No. 1 to our No. 309 inclusive. It gives the fathers and children only, leaving out the mothers and the witnesses. It is by Dirck Storm, and comes down to April, 1716, the date at which he disappears from every register in the book. To satisfy every reader of our book that we omit nothing of value from the original, the following specimens are given of the resume. Compare them with Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 309, as give above:

The daughter of Jan Heyert, Rebecca.....Folio 1

The two sons of Barent De Witt, Paulus and Petrus.....Folio 1

The son of Jan Heyert, Janny.....Folio 1

The daughter of Jan Louwerens, Anna.....Folio 1

_____

Cornelis Van Texel, son Jacobus.....Folio 22

It is not even an alphabetical index, and would be of no service in thie volume.

What follows is this:

2.--The great marriage regiseter, or Fifth Book (Division) of the Recort. This will of course appear in its place in this work. See "Table of Contents."

3.--The Church accounts, those of its treasurers from year to year. Again consult "Table of Contents.":

And now we resume the register of baptisms from the point at which we left it above.

What now remains of the register of baptisms is upon twenty detached leaves and parts of leaves that have been handled over and over for decades and are very much decayed. Nineteen of them are closely covered on both sides, and the twentieth on one side, with entries of baptisms, in all more than six hundred in number. About half the baptisms from the beginnning run on with regularly progressing dates of administrations. The later entries are very much confused as to dates, and many of them are wholly undated. At the end the leaves become very badly frittered on the edges, and many letters and even sylllables are whollly gone. The illitereacy of the entries as we approach their closing days is distressing. Every word and letter that can possibly be deciphered will be faithfully given to the last. The date at which we now resume is the same as the last, viz., April 22, 1766.

The book adds to these children's names the words "Baptized June 15, 1766." Of course there is something wrong in this statement. Perhaps the word "baptized" (gedoopt) is a blunder for "geboren" (born).

2012. Socaerse (2025), Ennie his wife / Maten, b. May 28 / No witnesses

"Socaerse," all one word in the original, may be for "Soc" (see 2025) "Aerse." But in this part of the record the capital "S" and capital "J" are made exactly alike, so that which is meant cannot possibly be told except through positive knowledge. Thus we have "Soseph," where we know "J" is meant, and "Solomon," where we know "S" is meant. The word above may be "Socaerse," and mean "Soc Aerse," or it may be "Jocaerse," and stand for "Jo Caerse" (or "Carsen"). Compare "Joseph Paldon" (1630) with "Jopalden" (1915).
